

The background is a dark navy blue. The title is written in a mix of white script and bold sans-serif fonts. Several cartoon-style faces of diverse children are arranged around the text, appearing to peek out from behind a white, torn-paper-like horizontal line that separates the title from the author's name. The children have various skin tones (brown, tan, light brown) and are wearing colorful clothing like pink, orange, green, and blue. They are all smiling and looking towards the center.
