

MY WONDERFUL SIBLINGS

AND "I"

ETIMA UMEH

ABOUT THE BOOK

"My Wonderful Sibling and I" is a delightful collection of heartwarming and thought-provoking stories that celebrate the beauty and sometimes challenges of sibling relationships. Through the experiences of Dianne Aisha Edward and her siblings, George Edward and Ciara Edward, young readers are drawn into a relatable world where everyday family moments become powerful lessons in love and character. Each story highlights real-life situations siblings often face teasing, jealousy, forgiveness, setting boundaries, defending each other, and cheering one another on. As the stories unfold, readers learn how to handle their emotions, make better choices, and grow into kind, respectful, responsible, and supportive siblings. This book is a perfect companion for children and preteens learning to navigate siblinghood with empathy, maturity, and love.
